Do You Need A Social Networking Presence?

While Facebook is not a perfect fit for every company, many businesses enjoy communicating with customers this way, and use their page to announce special offers, and gather feedback about what the company is doing right – and wrong.

Visit Our Blog

New to social media? Our February blog entry, "Three Tips to a Great Company Facebook Page," offers important information to help get you started.

Or visit us on Facebook (address): we'll be happy to answer any questions about whether Facebook would be a positive addition to your marketing strategy.

RELAY Improves the Accuracy and Efficiency of Real Estate Transactions LearnRelay Makes it Easier for Your Realtor to Enjoy the Benefits of RELAY

Your RELAY Questions Answered

LearnRelay was designed as a comprehensive, interactive destination to help real estate businesses learn more about RELAY. Its purpose is to not only help new users to simplify the adoption and utilization of RELAY, but also to provide an ongoing resource of information to improve the experience of existing users.

Paperless Transactions: The Future of Real Estate

Nobody, from realtors to real estate buyers and sellers, is satisfied with the transaction experience when it requires signatures on dozens of pages. This process is not only inefficient, it adds cost and personnel time to each transaction and is vulnerable to a variety of errors and omissions.

The RELAY Solution

RELAY is an electronic real estate solution that eliminates paper transactions that is more accurate, efficient and economical.

However, despite the advantages it offers and the endorsement the system has received from the California Association of Realtors, industry adoption of RELAY has been slower than anticipated.

Join the RELAY Revolution with LearnRelay

LearnRelay provides a practical, easy-to-understand guide for how to get started with RELAY, and gain an edge over your competition.

You'll find plenty of helpful resources here, including:

- Interactive video and online content on how to implement RELAY
- Business process learning solutions for the transition to a paperless environment
- Access to webinars, seminars and trained consultants
- Ongoing support before, during and after RELAY installation
